

Inter-Religious Council of Uganda

Religions for Peace

NATIONAL ELECTION PRAYER DAY ON THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2010 AT KOLOLO GROUNDS

The Inter-Religious Council of Uganda (IRCU) calls upon all faiths in Uganda to dedicate prayers for peaceful 2011 elections during the month of October 2010.

The special election national prayers will be launched on Thursday 21st October 2010 at Kololo Airstrip grounds, starting at 8.00.a.m.

Invited are:

- Archbishops, Bishops, Overseers, Pastors, Clergy and all religious leaders of the different faith
- All Christians, Moslems and congregations from other denominations
- All members of the public.

After the National prayers, our faiths are requested to dedicate special prayers as follow:

- Islamic faith on Friday 22nd October, 2010,
- The Seventh-day-Adventist faith on Saturday 23rd October, 2010
- The Anglican, Catholic, Orthodox and the Pentecostals on Sunday 24th October, 2010

Signed:

JOSHUA KITAKULE

SECRETARY GENERAL

Date: 14th October, 2010